1. [REDACTED] Called Dave McGinn in the Massachusetts office of Representative Michael Harrington (D., Mass.) to report that the Agency had no one with the name [REDACTED] previously assigned to Vietnam. McGinn was quite surprised and said that his constituent seemed very matter of fact about their son's Agency employment and that he would check further and get back to me if necessary.

2. [REDACTED] Called [REDACTED] IBM to report that we would not be returning the questionnaire which he had sent us regarding our interest in natural resources information. I went over again the general areas of our interest and our sources, and pointed out that we had very limited computer handling of this information. I also stressed that our interests overlap the interests of certain other Federal agencies or departments and that any information they supply would probably encompass our effort. [REDACTED] though not ecstatic seemed satisfied.

3. [REDACTED] Representative Robert Giaimo spoke to the Senior Seminar class on the Hill this morning. The session went very well with lively exchanges on a number of current issues. Giaimo was especially concerned about any possible valid allegation that President Kennedy's assassination was in retaliation to a CIA assassination attempt on Castro.
